Washington Correspondence.

...day Congress meets. Our lively Wash...on correspondent "Argus," sends us his ...ening letter, which appears this morning. ...e will keep the readers of THE CONSTITUTION posted of matters in the National Capitol.

The Richmond and Atlanta Air-Line Railroad.

We learn from General W. K. Easley, who has lately visited Richmond in the interest of the Richmond and Atlanta Air-Line Railroad, that the affairs of the company are in a most promising and gratifying condition. The bonds of the Road are considered first-class securities in New York, and it will be completed to Spartanburg in twelve months, and to Greenville in eighteen months.—Greenville Mountaineer.

The Mayoralty.

Judge Hammond issues a circular this morning, which concludes with the following very modest appeal to the voters of Atlanta:

"Fellow-citizens: If you desire an economical administration of the city government, "vote for me." If you want to suppress vice, "vote for me." If you want faithful, sober, capable, upright officers to manage your city affairs, "vote for me." If you want a proper distribution of taxes among the rich and poor, without unjust discrimination, "vote for me." If you want every dollar paid into the city treasury faithfully applied, and every dollar accounted for, "vote for me," and I pledge myself that these results shall follow.

Respectfully,
D. F. HAMMOND.

It is respectfully submitted that an appropriate finale of this grandiloquent explosion would have been: "Whoopee—Big Indian me!!"

But if Mr. Judge can "per se" accomplish all these things, wherefore have a council of ten men? Their services can be disposed with; and the city thereby save two thousand dollars, and the salary of the members of Council.

What say you Judge, will you run the machine alone? Or would you like to have the services of one A. L. Harris—the greatest political machinist of the age.

Card from Mr. Maddox.

We give in another column the card of Mr. Maddox, who explains the fee of $500 received by Mr. Robert H. Brown, for services in drawing the title to the James house.

We would do injustice to no one, and will always be ready to correct it. Nay, more, we ever seek the opportunity to rectify wrong that we may do.

In this matter we do not think that Mr. Maddox has made a clear case. Of course the drawing of a title includes all the necessary examination into the validity of that title. We did not know the amount of work Mr. Brown did, but we do know that Mr. James should have furnished a good title to the property without expense to the State, and the expense of remedying defects should have fallen upon him and not the State. Governor Bullock did not attend properly to the States' interest in paying for making a good title to this property, though he did do properly in seeing that the title was good.

But we still contend that the Attorney General was the proper party to represent the State's interest. We have no quarrel with Mr. Brown nor Mr. Maddox for taking these fees. Our quarrel is with the Governor for giving away unnecessarily the people's money to his relatives and political friends. Of course Mr. Brown and Mr. Maddox, who are ...'d to be very clever gentlemen, will take legal business from any source. That is their profession.

But Co... Farrow is the official man to do the State's ...aw business, save when assistance is imperatively required, and we hardly think that this job was too heavy for this official. If it was, he is cer...ainly a better letter writer than legal adviser. His letters about the Far West were very interes...ting, and the selection of THE CONSTITUTION in which to publish them showed Col. Farrow's good taste and sensible appreciation of a large and good class of readers. But those very entertaining letters don't justify Gov. Bullock in flinging away the people's money, and slighting the law officer of the State to give fat fees to his kin.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

Finances—Jobs—The 42d Congress—Georgia to Suffer—Gov. Bullock's Newspaper Correspondents—Gossip.

WASHINGTON, December 1, 1870.

Editor Constitution: Our M. C.'s are arriving slowly. The short time some of them have to serve their country (?) does not seem to hasten them Capitol-ward. Perhaps they are afraid of the interviewers who just now infest Washington in great numbers; or, maybe they are rehearsing their farewell speeches. At all events, it is unusually quiet in Washington for the time and season. Why this should be thusly no one can say. It is predicted in many quarters that the coming session will be

PROLIFIC OF FAT JOBS.

Last session so much important public business had to be transacted in order to keep the wheels of Government in motion, that the lobbyists failed to get their measures through. A large number of private bills and schemes of public plunder were left hanging, like Mahomet's coffin, between the heaven of success and the earth of defeat. The Speaker's table groans under the load of jobbing measures. These will be put through this session, if possible. As many M. C's. will, on the 4th of March next, be consigned to that bourne from whence no Congressman returns, they will be able to "see" a good thing with much greater ease than when they had constituents to confront. These worthies will make hay while the sun shines, sure. It was supposed that there would be no

TINKERING OF THE FINANCES

this session; but present indications are that the funding bill will be amended somewhat. It is found that capitalists are not so eager to embrace Mr. Boutwell's ideas, and bonds, as supposed, and a higher rate of interest will, no doubt, be agreed upon. It is believed that no attempt will be made to repeal the law authorizing on the expiration of the 41st. The suggestion that the "Revenue Reformers" shall unite with the Conservatives and secure the officers and committees of the House, has alarmed and enraged the Radicals. It is said they will put Beast Butler forward as their candidate for Speaker, because of his relatives at the White House. It is given out that Butler has now got Grant in leading strings, and that the administration will be run in accordance with the views and wishes of the hero of Dutch Gap.

THE ORGANIZATION OF THE 42D CONGRESS,

THE SOUTH CAROLINA ELECTION

will be pretty thoroughly ventilated, and will expose an aggregate of fraud and rascality calculated to astonish everybody save the carpet-bag ring in that State. C. C. Bowen, Republican member from the Charleston district, is one of the victimized, he having been counted out and a negro named DeLarge counted in. Senator Sawyer has published a pamphlet, in which he contends that Bowen is entitled to the seat. It is claimed that in some precincts the votes exceeded the registration; and DeLarge, moreover, not only run the blockade during the war, but torts out British papers. If all that we hear is true, sufficient proof of frauds will be submitted to invalidate the whole election.

GEORGIA IS TO SUFFER

Radical manipulation next. Akerman put up the job of snatching the State from the Democracy, and Gen. Terry, with his United States troops, will carry the thing through. The Washington correspondent of the New York Times, who is continually contradicting his letters, says no troops have been ordered to Georgia. In the language of Horace Greely, the Times' correspondent lies. A gentleman stated the other day, in Pensylvania Avenue, that the Times' correspondent was in the pay of Gov. Bullock during last session. But that need surprise nobody. The Radicals will spend money freely to carry Georgia, and as they have the counting of the votes, it is an uphill contest for the Democracy.

THE DEPARMENT REPORTS

have nearly all been published, and entertaining reading they are. Barnum is looking for the man who has read these reports, as they appeared in the newspapers, and thinks there is "money in it"—if he can find him. Yet certain newspapers are boasting of the superior enterprise of their correspondents in stealing these reports, and chief among them is the highly moral New York Tribune. The fact is, the pith of these documents had been given some days before, and the documents complete were only fit for a place in the waste basket. Boutwell's report and the President's message, the only documents worth stealing, have not yet seen the light, and are not likely to until the proper time comes.

BREVITIES.

Chief Justice Chase is slowly but apparently surely regaining his strength. His mind was not affected by the paralysis.

General John C. Fremont has gone to housekeeping in Washington for the winter. He has leased the residence of Colonel Pitcher, at 827, Vermont avenue.

Senator Ames and wife (neé Miss Blanche Butler) have arrived in town.

General Robert Williams, U. S. A., better known as Mrs. Senator Douglass's husband, will leave here shortly for Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, to report for duty to General Pope.

The Washington and Georgetown Street Railway, owned principally in New York, has declared a dividend of ten per cent.

Copies of the President's message will be furnished to the press on Monday. The chances of its being stolen before that time are not brilliant.

Senator Morton is sorely afflicted again. He calls it rheumatism. He expects to return to Washington this week, however.

Mrs. Oates is winning golden opinions and cords of greenbacks, at Walls Opera House, with her clever burlesque troupe.

TROUPE.

NORTH GEORGIA METHODIST CONFERENCE.

FOURTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Reported specially for The Atlanta Constitution by W. G. WHIDBY, Local Editor.

AUGUSTA, December 3, 1870.

Bishop Pierce presided but a short while this morning, having to leave for home on pressing business. He returns on Monday. Bishop Pierce is an active man, and such is the demand upon his time that he has not been at home more than one day at a time in the past eight months. President Potter presided to-day with dignity and impartiality.

The characters of the following Elders were passed: J. V. M. Morris, H. H. Parks, C. W. Key, J. M. Armstrong, Leonard Rush, T. A. Seals, W. P. Pledger, Josiah Lewis, Sr., W. M. Crumley, W. A. Dodge, W. C. Dunlap, W. J. Wardlaw, D. J. Myrick, Albert Gray, F. B. Davies, A. W. Rowland, B. J. Johnson, Jesse Boring, G. J. Pearce, Walter R. Branham, A. Wright, John P. Duncan, D. Kelsey, W. W. Oslin, J. H. Harris, Levi P. Neese, Robert Stripling, Wesley F. Smith, Cicero A. Mitchell, F. A. Kimball, J. J. Singleton.

I. N. Craven and F. W. Baggerly, supernumeraries, were made effective.

Alexander Means, Robert A. Seale, D. W. Calhoun, and J. T. Norris were made supernumeraries.

J. W. Turner, W. J. Parks, J. W. Carroll, J. B. C. Quillian, J. P. Howell, J. B. Payne, Henry Cranford, A. J. Deavors, J. M. Bright, Morgan Bellah, C. Trussel, Goodman Hughes, were superannuated.

The following preachers have died during the year: Wesley P. Arnold, J. W. Reynolds, W. H. Evans, and Edmund W. Reynolds. The last named was found dead in the woods near his house in Fayette county a few days ago.

Rev. C. A. Evans and Dr. W. King were added to the Committee on Education. The money collected on Foreign Missions was ordered to be paid over to Mrs. Young J. Allen, for transmission to her husband in China. Mrs. Allen was present at the Conference.

The Mission Board offered a resolution rescinding the action of last Conference assessing twenty per cent. for a reserved fund for five years for mission purposes. Rev. A. Wright opposed the passage of the resolution, and Rev. W. F. Cook favored it. Dr. W. P. Harrison offered, as a substitute, a resolution directing the Treasurer to ascertain the amount of the twenty per cent. assessment collected, and give that amount the direction intended, which substitute was adopted.

Rev. W. F. Cook offered a resolution to abolish the "Reserved Fund" after the present year, which was not taken up for action.

The report of the Committee on Bible Cause was read by the chairman, Hon. Robbert Hester. The report conveyed the gratifying intelligence that bible societies had been organized in every county in the North Georgia conference except eight. Colporteurs were greatly needed. Mr. Hester made an eloquent speech in advocacy of the report, which report was adopted.

Rev. W. A. Parks, Bible agent, gave a truthful and interesting account of his labors.

Rev. Morgan Calloway, President of the LaGrange Female College, reported that excellent institution in successful operation, and asked for the appointment of a committee to visit the college and examine into its condition.

Rev. G. G. Smith, of the Baltimore Conference made an earnest appeal in behalf of the Mt. Vernon Methodist Church, of Washington City.

Rev. Dr. Poysal, of Baltimore, announced that he had already obtained seventy subscribers to the Quarterly Review, edited by Rev. A. T. Bledsoe, lately an Episcopal Divine, who had united with the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

The celebration of the Sunday School Society of the North Georgia Conference last night at St. John's Church was one of the most interesting scenes that I ever witnessed. The pupils and teachers of St. John's and St. James' and Asbury churches—over one thousand in number—assembled in the gallery. The choirs of the three churches also assembled together near the magnificent toned organ. The exercises opened with a voluntary by the schools, led by the choir, "Holy is the Lord." Rev. J. E. Evans read an appropriate selection from the Bible, and made an impressive prayer. Rev. W. P. Kramer was the first speaker. His theme was "Religious Training." He contended that to "train up a child in the way he should go," the child must first be got in that way, and the trainer must be in the way himself. His speech was ornate and beautiful, abounding in happy figures, glowing sentences, and sparkling gems of thought. Colonel George N. Lester was set down for the other speech, but not being present, Rev. Atticus G. Haygood was pressed into service. He was introduced as "Dr. Haygood, of Nashville," to which he objected, as he was AT HOME. Events proved that he was perfectly at home when making a Sunday School speech. He illustrated forcibly the power of the orator. One moment the audience would be convulsed with laughter as he portrayed, in graphic style, Watkinsville meeting house in days of yore, with its roof as high from the floor as the building was long; its pulpit a huge cupboard-like box midway between the floor and roof; his father carrying him with him to church and class meetings and love feasts—"going in the way and leading him in it"—in his wearisomeness at the long sermons, and then in a few moments bathed in tears as he recited some of the benefits accruing from Sunday Schools in the city of Atlanta—the wondrous manifestation of God's presence and power, following in their wake at Evans' Chapel, Payne's Chapel and the Old Fair Grounds Mission. The hearts of all in the church—filled as were all its seats and aisles—melted in Christian love as he dwelt upon the victories of the Cross.

The schools sang, in enrapturing style "Shout Aloud for Joy," "The Lost Sheep," Meet Me in that Lovely Land," and other songs.

It was an occasion that will never be forgotten by either old or young who were present.

Revs. W. H. Potter and A. G. Haygood are the coming bishops of the church. Their piety, zeal and abilities fit them preeminently for it.

Among the live working men of the denomination are Revs. John W. Heidt, the efficient Secretary, W. A. Farris, and Josiah Lewis, Jr. Mr. Heidt has built two new churches, and repaired all the others in his circuit, besides having his flock in excellent spiritual condition. Mr. Faris has established two Sunday schools where two grogshops once stood; and Mr. Lewis filled the positions of Presiding Elder and Professor in Emory College (double duty) with honor to himself and profit to the church.

SUNDAY'S DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, December 4.—The French situation as summed up in diplomatic circles is that the garrison, while unable to break through the German lines, has shown by recent efforts, a spirit and power, which, should Palladine's force break Prince Frederick Charles' lines and approach Paris, may result in a combination fatal to the Prussians.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, December 4.—John Rogers, his wife and two children aged 11 and 14 was burned to death within their house at Markleyville, Pa., Kerosene lamp explosion was the cause of fire.

The World's Brussels special of the 3d says, the Germans, on Friday, made a desperate effort to drive Ducrat's army, which occupied the villages on the east bank of the Marne, from Naissy Le Graute to Or Messon, to the west bank of the Marne. At day light the 15th and 28th corps, under the Duke of Saxony, with a division of Wurtemburgers, aggregating sixty thousand, made a furious assault upon the French position at Bricand Champeginy. The assault came from Northeast, East, and Southeast. Ducrat withdrew within Pennerisula, formed by Carve, of Marne, directly opposite Bois de Rencerines, thus covering his flanks by the stream. Advancing Germans encountered terible fire from forts Magent and Rosny, and Redoubt. A man-slaughter was fearful. The German lines wavered but soon rallied by officers, who fell in great numbers. First brigade, second division, Saxon troops, lost all its officers.

A large column of French troops from Paris crossed the bridges at noon near Brie and drove the Germans some distance eastward. Firing ceased at 3 o'clock, the French returning to near the east of the river, but not re-crossing. The French held the bridges. The losses on both sides are very large. The German losses are the greatest on account of the fire from the forts and redoubt and attacking the French in their favorite position.

The cotton movement week ending last night, shows an increase as to the receipts and a decrease as to the exports. Receipts 140,674 against 188,699 of last week, 172,183 for the week preceding, 132,065, three weeks since. Total receipts since September 1,058,829 against 901,744 last year, an increase of 157,083 bales. Exports 70,242, of which 29,621 were to Great Britain, 1,061 to the continent. Total exports since September 523,806 against 454,262 of last year. Stocks at all the ports 293,956 against 285,067 of last year. Stocks at the interior ports 89,174 bales against 69,061 of last year. Stock at Liverpool 394,000 against 234,000 of last year. American cotton afloat for Great Britain 139,000 against 242,000 last year. Indian cotton afloat for Great Britain 192,801 against 158,000 last year.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, December 4.—There is monster demonstration at the Cathedral, protesting against the spoilation of the State's Church by Victor Emanuel. Five thousand are in the building, and an immense throng in the vicinity. Hon. James Campbell presided, James R. Chandler read the protest.

FRANCE.

TOURS, November 4.—Yesterday a Paris balloon first landed near Seman, and says the French troops kept the positions that they took in the sorties. That 298,308 troops were preparing vigorously to prosecute an offensive movement.

General Vinoy had a position greatly in advance of Ducrat. Ducrat is stopped on account of a sudden rise in the river caused by the Prussians breaking the dams. There is no account of any resistance offered by the Prussians.

The Prussians retook Champigny, but the French again recaptured it.

It was the Prussians and not the French, that asked for a truce to bury their dead.

The army of the Loire made a successful movement.

To-day all the railways in this part of the country is stopped to passengers on account of an immense movement of troops.

The government makes the following announcement:

The army of the Loire has discontinued its forward movement, owing to the resistence of the enemy, who have concentrated large masses of troops between Pithiviers, Artenay and Alguville. The army occupies a strongly entrenched position, in which it will remain for the present, postponing its advance until a better opportunity is offered. Meanwhile, Ducrat, with the army which he led out of Paris, is disengaged, and will be able to act more freely, not having before him the masses of the enemy which it was supposed were going to meet him, but which has really retreated north of Orleans.

On Friday the movement of the army of the Loire was continued. There were frequent encounters along the line without decided advantage to either side. In one of these Gen. Saurnis was wounded and captured, causing a momentary check of the 17th Corps, which, however, held its position.

The morals of the troops are excellent.

The second attack on Autun was repulsed.

The enemy continue their retreat from the North.

The Prussians yesterday attacked the 19th and 17th, corps La France, and the result of the engagement was indecisive. The Moniteur is silent.

LILLE, December 4.—The evacuation of Amiens is confirmed. The retreating Prussians protect their rear by burning bridges.

Nothing from Manteuffelt. There is but little doubt that he has abandoned his march north and is moving rapidly to Paris with all his forces.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, December 4.—The Duke of Mecklenburg makes the following report of yesterday morning. A battle occurred near Bazactes les Hautes.

After a hot fight, the fifteenth French corps was defeated and driven back to Athernay, and the sixteenth French corps was driven beyond Largny. Several hundred prisoners and eleven guns were taken in the evening. Loss considerable. Ours unknown, but much smaller.

The fighting at Briercry was severe on Friday, the Germans being exposed to a steady fire from the French forts, but at 3 P. M., the French retired, leaving behind them many prisoners. Briercry, though abandoned by the French, was not occupied by the Germans. The French wounded who fell into German hands refuse to return to Paris.

The German leaders are losing much of their overweening confidence in consequence of late military events.

Prince George, in a dispatch to the King of Saxony, states that Brice and Champaigny have been recaptured, although the French brought great masses into the field. He admits the Saxons suffered grievously.

RUSSIA.

BUKHAREST, December 4.—Report of the minister's finance state that the floating debt has been extinguished, and the bill exacting tobacco monoply will be submitted.

SPAIN.

MADRID, December 4.—Senor Maret, Colonial minister, has been appointed minister of finanance, ad interim, vice Figuerola resigned.

ITALY.

FLORENCE, December 4.—A Deputation from the Spanish Government and Cortes to tender the crown of Spain to Duke of Aosta, arrived to-day, and was received with universal demonstration of welcome.

MONDAY'S NOON DISPATCHES

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, December 5.—The Vigilance Committee, at Round Hill, Colorado, hanged three stock thieves Thursday.

PRUSSIA.

BERLIN, December 5.—The King telegraphs the Queen that no fighting of any moment occurred Saturday at Paris.

The French loss in the fight of December 2d, was seven guns, one general, twenty superior officers and eighteen hundred men captured.

FRANCE.

TOURS, December 5.—On Friday the Prussians recaptured Fermeniere, Gollonaille, Neuville and Villipan. Heavy fighting yesterday all along the line, and it is reported that the Pontifical Zouaves were terribly cut up and their commander Charette wounded. The Germans are bombarding Belfort.

Gambetta has gone to Tours to consult with the officers of the army of the Loire.

The battle of Friday, in which the 16th and 17th corps were engaged, was protracted and sanguinary, the Prussians using heavy artillery.

The army of the Loire will receive heavy reinforcements.

It is rumored that Ducrat is still near Paris, and having been reinforced, will soon take the offensive.

VERSAILLES, December 5.—The French were deceived by Frederick Charles in the forest of Orleans, losing two cannon.

On Sunday evening, the French, before Vincennes, were reinforced.

Fraskow's division, in Friday's fight, took two guns and 1,800 prisoners.

LYONS, December 5.—Fighting all day Saturday between Garibaldi's and Herder's forces. French success.

General Creveer is now actively pursuing the flying Prussians.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, December 5.—The Saxon losses from the 30th to the 2d are 1,800 men, four Saxon regiments; the list of officers are 15 killed and 60 wounded. The French prisoners are about 3,000.

Advices from Paris on Sunday night says that no further attempts have been made to force the Prussian lines.

It is stated that Bismarck will retire from office unless the constitution of the South German States is adopted without alteration.

ITALY.

FLORENCE, December 5.—The Duke of Aosta officially notified the deputation of Spanish Cortes of the acceptance of the Spanish Crown. He will probably accompany the deputation to Madrid.

Books for subscription to the capitol stock of the Northeastern Railroad have been opened in Green, Richmond, Oglethorpe, Clark, Madison, Jackson, Hall, Banks, Habersham, White and Raburn counties.

The police force of Augusta had a parade on Saturday. Miss Ravel is amusing the citizens of the above place with the sensational drama of the Wild Cat.

The test of Ploughs on yesterday, the 24th, and Saturday, the 22d, was heavily contested by all the leading Ploughs from the West, North, and South. George Watt, the Watt Ploughman, offered on the field, $100 for any Plough on exhibition at this Fair that would go through a very heavy cover of weeds, without choking, covering up all the vegetation, pulling as long to the team, working as easy to the ploughman, and pulverizing the soil, as the Watt Plough did. No man was found to accept the offer. The Watt Plough having performed its work perfectly in this heavy cover before this offer was made, its work is there to be seen and judged of by all who were present.

Manufactured at Richmond, Va., and sold by Carhart & Curd, Macon, Ga.; by C. H. Phinizy & Co., Augusta, Ga.; by Mark Johnson, Atlanta, Ga.; and R. P. Johnson, Griffin, Ga.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
OR,
Salvation for the Hair.
CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!
For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

Campaign Documents.

The Campaign Document for Democratic use, is now ready for delivery. All orders must be accompanied by the cash, or else to be sent by express "C. O. D."

☞ We give up our space to the President's Message this morning.

☞ B. R. Blanchard is the new New Orleans Postmaster, vice Lowell, removed.

☞ The disabilities of Senator Vance, of North Carolina, have never been removed. It is uncertain if he will be admitted.

☞ In our Weekly this morning, will be found the President's Message IN FULL. The first weekly in the State issued containing that document.

☞ The Spanish government has accepted the resignation of De Rodas as Captain General of Cuba.

This looks ominous for Spanish rule in Cuba.

☞ It is said that the Alapaca circuit was created especially for O'Neal, to keep him from running as an independent candidate against the Radical nominee for Congress in the First District.

☞ Schenck of Ohio, has determind to contest Campbell's seat in Congress. Nobody believed that he would do otherwise. As the Philadelphia Age said of Cessna, where did a Radical ever fail to contest for five thousand dollars.

Judge Hammond.

Our limited space this morning, prevents our discussing the municipal matter.

Judge Hammond gives no ground for asking Democratic votes that does not apply to Dr. Alexander. The latter will be as economical, antagonistic to rings, and all that sort of thing as the former, while he will go into office under no obligation to the Bullock faction, and in no way connected with that ring.

Judge Hammond submitted his claims for a Democratic nomination and failed. Whatever be his own judgment upon his position, the impartial verdict is that he is a bolter, an attempted disorganizer of the party, and the selected candidate of the Radical faction.

He alleges unfairness in the nomination. He neither specifies the unfairness nor proves it. His inconsistency is apparent when he claims not to have entered the nomination, and yet seeks to justify his candidacy on the ground of its unfairness.

The simple question for Democrats is, whether they will vote for their excellent ticket, or support the Radical nominee, who seeks to give success to the Radicals under the guise of friendship to the Democracy.

OUR AUGUSTA LETTER.

Facts and Incidents.

AUGUSTA, December 3, 1870

Capt-Superintendent-Senator Blodgett met with a signal defeat here to-day. He tried unsuccessfully to have Tweedy nominated for Congress, but got a "fannin out." Today he tried to have Tweedy nominated for the Legislature, by buying up the delegates. It is said that he offered one of them $900, but the delegate couldn't see it. Captain Bryant defeated Tweedy on the first ballot by an overwhelming vote.

In a suit on a note in the City Court, the maker of the note testified that when Blodgett was a candidate for Mayor in 1867, he made arrangements with him (witness) to treat all his friends. When Blodgett was called upon for funds he gave the witness four hundred dollars of post-office money, and stated that he had plenty of post-office money to use for electioneering purposes. (Wouldn't it be well for our Democratic friends in Atlanta to ascertain what barrooms are treating Blodgett's friends in this campaign.)

George Evers declined the Blodgett nomination for Mayor, and Ben. Conley has been put up to be badly beaten by Charles Estes.

Tweedy is airing his whiskers behind a $1,440 "turnout," but as he has been thrown overboard by his party, it is likely that instead of a Trustee, that he will become an inmate of the Lunatic Asylum.

A fine pair of horses arrived here to-day for Gov. Bullock, and will probably go up to Atlanta Monday. It may be of some consolation to the people to know that, though the State credit was not good enough to get off those bonds, the Governor's credit was good enough to get a fine pair of horses. Perhaps he may be imitating the President in receiving presents!

Mayor Allen is a live man and a model Mayor. His administration has been remarkably a successful one. The City Council, as a testimonial of their appreciation of his valuable services, presented him with a $1,000 city bond.

The police department at Augusta is a model one. It requires a man of nerve and good moral character, and the department is in the highest state of efficiency. This has been produced not so much by the uniforms as by the discipline of the Mayor and J. A. Christian, the veteran Chief of Police. The office of the Chief of Police is elegantly fitted up with pictures, carpets and desks. On the centre table lies a copy of the Bible, Webster's Dictionary, and other works.

Only evening paper is the Opera House [illegible] Bulletin, edited with marked ability [illegible] T. Blome, one of Napoleon's Old Guard [illegible] Planter's Hotel is thronged with [illegible] Mr. Goldstein, the landlord, is justly popular with everybody and his wife, on account of his urbanity and kind disposition. His table contains the best the market affords, cooked and served in inimitable style. Mr. [illegible], his chief clerk, is a model hotel [illegible]. His politeness is proverbial, and his attention to the wants of guests unremitting. One man seems out of place there, and that man is W. A. Ramsey. His activity and character seems more like an Atlantean than a resident of Augusta. He is not ashamed to let people know that he has goods to sell and means to sell them. He has introduced a novelty here—Guanocca umbrella, made in Manchester, England—perfectly impervious to water, don't fade, lasts longer than cotton or silk. He is the sole agent for the sale of it in this State. We are using one, "Green Line."

Personal Correspondence.

ATLANTA, Nov. 29, 187.

Mr. Geo. P. Burnett, Atlanta, Ga.: SIR—I have just been informed that, at Ringgold last week, you took the following unwarrantable liberty with my name in a public speech.

Having assumed that I was the author of a communication which appeared in Friday's CONSTITUTION, signed "Brute," you state that "Colonel Avery, in writing this piece, lied, and lied knowingly."

Did you use this language?

I. W. AVERY.

WESTERN AND ATLANTIC RAILROAD,
OFFICE GENERAL AGENT,
ATLANTA, GA., November 28, 1870.

I. W. Avery: When I made use of the language referred to in your note, I supposed you to be the author, as it appeared under the editorial column of your paper.

I intended my remarks to apply to the author, of course. Your being present at the time led me to believe it was your report of my remarks.

If you are not the author of the article, my remarks cannot in any way apply to you.

G. P. BURNETT.

ATLANTA, November 29, 1870.

G. P. Burnett—SIR: Your note of the 28th, in reply to my communication of same date was received last night. I would have sent an earlier reply, but for the absence of my friend, Colonel Alston.

You acknowledge to have used the offensive language referred to in my communication; but excuse yourself by stating that you were under the impression, at the time, that I was the author of the article in THE CONSTITUTION signed "Brute." You had no right to assume that I was the author, and make it the basis for such abusive language. As your language was without reservation, I now demand an equally unqualified retraction.

Colonel Alston, my friend, will receive your reply.

I. W. AVERY.

ATLANTA, GA., December 1, 1870.

I. W. Avery, Esq., Atlanta, Ga.: SIR—Your communication of the 29th instant was handed me on yesterday evening, by Colonel R. A. Alston.

After due reflection I see that I was hasty in coming to the conclusion that the article in THE CONSTITUTION of the 25th ultimo, signed "Brute," was an editorial, and in denouncing you personally as the author.

I make this explanation, hoping it will be satisfactory.

G. P. BURNETT.

ATLANTA, December 2, 1870.

Mr. G. P. Burnett, Atlanta, Ga.: SIR—Your communication of the 1st should have come to me through Col. Alston, in courtesy to that gentleman, who represents me, and is authorized to act for me fully.

I therefore return you your letter, that it may come to me through the proper channel.

I. W. AVERY.

WESTERN AND ATLANTIC RAILROAD,
OFFICE GENERAL AGENT,
ATLANTA, GA., December 1, 1870.

I. W. Avery, Esq., Atlanta, Ga.: SIR—Your communication of the 29th ult., was handed me on yesterday evening by Colonel R. A. Alston.

After due reflection I see I was hasty in the conclusion that the article in THE CONSTITUTION of the 25th ult., signed "Brute," was an editorial; and in denouncing you personally, as the author, I regret the oversight.

I make this explanation, hoping it will be satisfactory.

G. P. BURNETT.

P. S.—This will be handed to you by my friend, T. T. Smith.

B.

ATLANTA, GA., December 3, 1870.

Mr. George P. Burnett, Atlanta, Ga.: SIR—Your note of the 2d was received last night too late for reply. I am compelled to say that your explanation is not satisfactory. It does not cover the wrong.

A graver offense could hardly have been committed than yours against me. Without the slightest ground you publicly ascribed to me, without reservation, a newspaper article whose authorship was in your grasp by simply enquiry, which article you allege to contain falsehoods. This itself was a wrong.

In the same paper, under the head of "Editorial Correspondence," I had given my views of your speech courteously. So that your assumption of authorship was not only groundless, but it was in absolute conflict with the facts.

You then denounced me, unqualifiedly, as a liar; and as if this was not insulting enough, you add that I was a liar knowingly. Language could not be made more offensive, or offensive language be more unwarranted.

And what is the reparation you offer for this gross and unprovoked assault upon one who had not only never wronged you, but was not even acquainted with you? You merely say that you had been hasty in ascribing the article to me, and in denouncing me, and that you regret the oversight; but you neither withdraw the offensive language acknowledged to be untrue, or regret the injustice acknowledged to have been done. You leave the worst part of your wrong unwithdrawn and unredressed. You avoid all retraction of, or apology for your abuse.

In such matters gentlemen should never exact more than honor would give, in redress of admitted wrong, and therefore cannot accept less. The measure of the acknowledgment is the extent of the wrong.

I, therefore, have no alternative but to insist upon your withdrawing your language as unreservedly as you used it.

Colonel Alston being away, this will be delivered by Captain Harry Jackson, who acts temporarily for Colonel Alston.

I. W. AVERY.

WESTERN AND ATLANTIC RAILROAD,
OFFICE GENERAL AGENT,
ATLANTA, GA., December 5, 1870.

I. W. Avery, Esq., Atlanta, Ga.: SIR—Your note of the 3d inst., by Capt. Jackson, has been handed me.

In my note of the 28th ult., I stated that the language you complain of was used by me, under the belief that you were the author of the letter signed "Brute."

In my note of the 1st inst., I stated that I was hasty in coming to that conclusion, and I regretted it.

It was my intention in these notes, to withdraw, without reserve, as to you, the language you complain of, and you are authorized to so receive them.

I write this explanation of my former notes the more cheerfully because of the followgin language in your last note:

"In the same paper, under the head of editorial correspondence, 'I had given my views of your speech courteously, so that your assumption of authorship was not only groundless, but was in absolute conflict with facts.'"

Hoping that I am now fully understood, I am

G. P. BURNETT.

P. S.—Colonel, this will be handed you by my friend T. T. Smith.

B.

ATLANTA, GA., December 5, 1870.

Mr. G. P. Burnett, Atlanta, Ga.—SIR: Your note is satisfactory.

Respectfully,
I. W. AVERY.

The English Mission.

It is thought that the English Mission will be kept open for Senator Morton until the 1st of March, when the Indiana Legislature will adjourn, and Morton's resignation will leave a Senatorial vacancy to be filled by gubernatorial appointment. In this way a Radical Senator will be secured in Morton's place.

Thus does President Grant play with National interests. The filling of an important mission is kept dangling on party necessities. And because the people, in the exercise of their sovereign rights, will elect a Senator opposed to Radicalism, they are to be tricked out of the election, and international business must suffer neglect for an indefinite period. Bard did right to haul out from Grant's support. And there will be plenty more of such desertions if this sort of administration of national affairs continues.

President's Message.

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

A year of peace and general prosperity to the nation has passed, since the last assembling of Congress we have through a kind Providence, been blessed with abundant crops and have been spared from complications and war with foreign nations. In our midst comparative harmony has been restored. It is to be regretted, however, that a full exercise of the elective franchise has, by violence and intimidation been denied to citizens in exceptional cases in several of the States lately in rebellion, and the verdict of the people has thereby been reversed. The States of Virginia, Mississippi, and Texas have been restored to representation in our national Councils. Georgia, the only State now without representation, may confidently be expected to take her place there also at the beginning of the new year, and then let us hope will be completed the work of reconstruction. With an acquiescence on the part of the whole people in the national obligation to pay the public debt created as the price of our Union. The pensions to our disabled soldiers and sailors and their widows and orphans and in the changes to the Constitution, which have been made necessary by a great rebellion there is no reason why we should not advance in national prosperity and happiness as no other nation ever did after so protracted and devastating a war. Soon after the existing war broke out in Europe, the protection of the United States Minister in Paris was invoked in favor of the North Germans domiciled in French territory. Instructions were issued to grant the protection. This has been followed by an extension of American protection to citizens of Saxony, Hesse and Saxe, to Portugal, Ecuador, Chili, Paraguay and Venezuela, in Paris. The charge was an onerous one, requiring constant and severe labor, as well as the exercise of patience prudence and good judgment. It has been performed to the entire satisfaction of this Government, and as I am officially informed, equally so to the satisfaction of the Government of North Germany.

As soon as I learned that a Republic had been proclaimed at Paris, and that the people of France had acquiesced in the change, the minister of the United States was directed by telegraph to recognize it, and to tender my congratulations and those of the people of the United States. The re-establishment in France of a system of government, disconnected with the dynasty and traditions of Europe, appeared to be a proper subject for the felicitations of Americans, should the present struggle result in attaching the hearts of the French to our simpler forms of representative government. It will be a subject of still greater satisfaction to our people, while we make no effort to impose our institutions upon the inhabitants of all countries, and while we adhere to our traditional neutrality in civil contests elsewhere, we cannot be indifferent to the spread of American political ideas in a highly civilized country like France. We were asked by the new government to use our good offices jointly with those of European powers in the interests of peace. Our answer was made that the established policy, and the true interests of the United States forbid them to interfere in European questions jointly with European powers. I ascertained informally, and unofficially, that the government of North Germany was not then disposed to listen to such representations from any powers; and though earnestly wishing to see the blessings of peace restored to the belligerents, with all of whom the United States are on terms of friendship, I declined on the part of this Government, to take a step which could only result in injury to our true interests without advantage to the object for which our intervention was invoked. Should the time come when the action of the United States can hasten the return of peace by a single hour, that action will be heartily taken. I deemed it prudent in view of the number of persons of German and French birth living in the United States, to issue soon after official notice of a state of war had been received from both belligerents, a proclamation defining the duties of the United States as a neutral, and the obligations of persons residing within their territory to observe their laws and the laws of nations. This Proclamation was followed by others as circumstances seemed to call for them. The people thus acquainted in advance of their duties and obligations, have assisted in preventing violations of the neutrality of the United States.

It is not understood that the condition of the insurrection in Cuba has materially changed since the close of the last session of Congress. In an early stage of the contest, the authorities of Spain inaugurated a system of arbitrary arrests, of close confinement, and of military trial and execution, of persons suspected of complicity with the insurgents, and of summary embargo of their properties and sequestration of their revenues by executive warrant. Such proceedings, so far as they affected the persons or property of citizens of the United States, were in violation of the provisions of the treaty of 1795, between the United States and Spain. Representations of injuries resulting to several persons claiming to be citizens of the United States, by reason of such violations, were laid before the Spanish government. From April, 1869, to June last, the Spanish Minister at Washington had been clothed with a limited power to aid in redressing such wrongs. That power was found to be withdrawn, in view, as it was said, of the favorable situation in which the island of Cuba then was; which, however, did not come to a revolution or suspension of the extraordinary and arbitrary functions, exercised by the executive power in Cuba, and we were obliged to make our complaints at Madrid. In the negotiations thus opened, and still pending there the United States only claimed that for the future, the rights secured to their citizens by treaty should be respected in Cuba; and that as to the past a joint tribunal should be established in the United States with full jurisdiction over all such claims. Before such an impartial tribunal each claimant would be required to prove his case; on the other hand, Spain would be at liberty to traverse every material fact, and thus complete equity would be done a case which, at one time, threatened seriously to affect the relations between the United States and Spain. It has already been disposed of in this way. The claim of the owners of the Colonel Lloyd Aspinwall was referred to arbitration by mutual consent, and has resulted in award to the United States for the owners of the same, the sum of $19,702 50 in gold.

Another and long pending claim of like nature, that of the whale ship Canada, has been disposed of by friendly arbitrament during the present year. It was referred by the joint consent of Britain and the United States to the decision of Sir Edward Thornton, Her Britannic Majesty's Minister at Washington, who kindly undertook the laborious task of examining the voluminous mass of correspondence and testimony submitted by the two governments, and awarded to the United States the sum of one hundred thousand seven hundred and forty dollars and nine cents, in gold, which has since been paid by the Imperial Government. These recent examples show that the mode which the United States have proposed to Spain for adjusting the pending claims is just and feasible, and that it may be agreed to by either nation without dishonor.

It is to be hoped that this moderate demand may be acceded to by Spain without further delay. Should the pending negotiations unexpectedly be without result, it will then become my duty to communicate that fact to Congress and invite its action on the subject of the long defects.

The conference between Spain and the allied South American Republics has been inaugurated in Washington under the auspices of the United States pursuant to the recognition contained in the resolution of the House of Representatives of the 17th of December, 1866. The Executive Department of the Government offered its friendly offices for the promotion of peace and harmony between Spain and the allied Republics.

Hesitation and obstacles has occurred to the acceptance of the offer; ultimately, however, a conference was arranged, and was opened in this city on the 29th of October last, at which I authorized the Secretary of State to preside. It was attended by the Ministers of Spain, Peru, Chili and Equador. In consequence of the absence of a representative from Bolivia, the conference was adjourned until the attendance of a plenipotentiary from that Republic could be secured, or other measures could be adopted toward compassing its objects. The allied and other people, republics of Spanish origin on this continent, may see in this fact a new proof of our sincere interest in their welfare and of our desire to see them blessed with good Governments, and capable of maintaining order and of preserving their respective territory and integrity, and of our sincere wish to extend our own commercial and social relations with them. The time is not probably far distant, when in the natural course of events, the European political connection with this continent will cease. Our policy should be shaped in view of this probability, so as to ally the commercial interests of the Spanish American States more closely to our own, and thus give the United States all the pre-eminence and all the advantage which Mr. Monroe, Mr. Adams and Mr. Clay contemplated when they proposed to join in the Congress of Panama.

During the last session of Congress, a treaty for the annexation of the Republic of San Domingo to the United States failed to receive the requisite two-thirds vote of the Senate. I was thoroughly convinced that the best interests of this country, commercially and materially, demanded its ratification. Time has only confirmed me in this view. I now firmly believe that the moment it is known the United States have entirely abandoned the project of accepting as a part of its territory the island of San Domingo, a free port will be negotiated for by European nations. In the bay of Samana a large commercial city will spring up to which we will be tributary without receiving corresponding benefit, and then will be seen the folly of our rejecting so great a prize.

The government of San Domingo has voluntarily sought this annexation. It is a weak power, numbering probably less than one hundred and twenty thousand souls, and yet possessing one of the richest territories under the sun, capable of supporting a population of ten million of people in luxury. The people of San Domingo are not capable of maintaining themselves in their present condition, and must look for outside support. They yearn for the protection of our free institutions and laws, our progress and civilization. Shall we refuse them?

The acquisition of San Domingo is desirable because of its geographical position. It commands the entrance to the Carribean Sea and the isthmus transit of commerce. It possesses the richest soil, the best and most capacious harbors, the most salubrious climate, and the most valuable products of the forest, mine and soil of any of the West India Islands. Its possession by us will, in a few years, build up a coastwise commerce of immense magnitude, which will go far toward restoring to us our lost merchant marine. It will give to us those articles which we consume so largely, and do not produce, thus equalizing our exports and imports. In case of foreign war, it will give us command of all the islands referred to, and thus prevent an enemy from ever again possessing himself of rendezvous upon our very coast. At present, our trade between States bordering on the Atlantic, and those bordering on the Gulf of Mexico, is cut in two by the Bahamas and the Antilles twice, and we must, as it were, pass through foreign countries to get by sea from Georgia to the west coast of Florida. San Domingo, with a stable government, under which her immense resources can be developed, will give remunerative wages to tens of thousands of laborers not now on the island. This labor will take advantage of every available means of transportation to abandon adjacent isles and seek the blessings of freedom and its sequence. Each inhabitant receiving the reward of his own labor. Porto Rico and Cuba will have to abolish slavery as a measure of self-preservation to retain their laborers. San Domingo will become a large consumer of the products of Northern farms and manufactories. The cheap rate at which her citizens can be furnished with food, tools and machinery, will make it necessary that the contiguous islands have same advantages, in order to compete in the production of sugar, coffee, tobacco, tropical fruits, etc. This will open to us a still wider market for our products. The production of our own supply of these articles will cut off more than one hundred million of our annual imports, besides largely increasing our exports. With such a picture it is easy to see how our large debt abroad is ultimately to be extinguished with a balance of trade against us, including interest on bonds held by foreigners, and money spent by our citizens traveling in foreign lands, equal to the entire yield of the precious metals in this country. It is not so easy to see how this result is to be otherwise accomplished.

The acquisition of San Domingo is an adherence to the Monroe doctrine. It is a measure of national protection. It is asserting our just claim to a controlling influence over the great commercial traffic soon to flow from west to east, by way of the Isthmus of Darien. It is to build up our merchant marine. It is to furnish new markets for the products of our farms, shops and manufactories. It is to make slavery insupportable in Cuba and Porto Rico at once, and ultimately so in Brazil. It is to settle the unhappy condition of Cuba and end an exterminating conflict. It is to provide honest means of paying our honest debts, without over-taxing the people. It is to furnish our citizens with the necessaries of every day life, at cheaper rates than ever before. And it is, in fine, a rapid stride toward greatness, which the intelligence, industry and enterprise of the citizens of the United States entitle this country to assume among nations.

In view of the importance of this question I earnestly urge upon Congress early action expressive of its views as to the best means of acquiring San Domingo. My suggestion is, that by joint resolution of the two Houses of Congress, the executive be authorized to appoint a commission to negotiate a treaty with the authorities of San Domingo for the acquisition of that island, and that an appropriation be made to defray the expenses of such commission. The question may then be determined either by the action of the Senate upon the treaty or the joint action of the two Houses of Congress upon a resolution of annexation, as in the case of the acquisition of Texas. So convinced am I of the advantages to flow from the acquisition of San Domingo, and of the great disadvantages, I might almost say calamities, to flow from non-acquisition, that I believe the subject has only to be investigated to be approved. It is to be regretted that our representations in regard to the injurious effects, especially upon the revenue of the United States, of the policy of the Mexican government in exempting from impost duties a large tract of its territory on our borders, have not only been fruitless, but that it is even proposed in that country to extend the limits within which the privilege adverted to has hitherto been enjoyed. The expediency of taking into your serious consideration proper measures for countervailing the policy referred to, will, it is presumed, engage your earnest attention. It is the obvious interest, especially of neighboring nations, to provide against impunity to those who may have committed high crimes within their borders and who may have sought refuge abroad. For this purpose, extradition treaties have been concluded with several of the Central American Republics, and others are in progress.

The action of Congress is desired in [illegible] convenient, upon the proceedings of the commission

[illegible] We shall thus, at no distant day, be furnished with an authentic record of our condition and resources. It will, I doubt not, attest the growing prosperity of the country, although during the decade which has just closed, it was severely tried by the great war waged to maintain its integrity, and to secure and perpetuate our free institutions. During the last fiscal year, the sum paid to pensioners, including cost of disbursement, was [illegible] At the close of the year [illegible] names were borne on the pension rolls. The labors of the pension office have been directed to the severe scrutiny of the evidence submitted in favor of new claims, and to the discovery of fictitious claims, which have been heretofore allowed. The appropriation for the employment of special agents for the investigation of frauds, has been judiciously used, and the results obtained have been of unquestionable benefit to the service. The subjects of education and agriculture are of great interest to the success of our republican institutions, happiness and grandeur as a nation. In the interest of one a bureau has been established in the Interior Department, the Bureau of Education; and in the interest of the other a separate department, that of Agriculture. I believe that great general good is to flow from the operations of both these bureaus if properly fostered. I cannot commend to your careful consideration too highly the reports of the Commissioners of Education and of Agriculture, nor urge too strongly such liberal legislation as to secure their efficiency.

In conclusion, I would sum up the policy of the administration to be a thorough enforcement of every law; a faithful collection of every tax provided for; economy in the disbursement of the same; a prompt payment of every debt of the nation; a reduction of taxes as rapidly as the requirements of the country will admit; reductions of taxation and tariff to be so arranged as to afford the greatest relief to the greatest number; honest and fair dealings with all other peoples to the end that war, with all its blighting consequences, may be avoided, but without surrendering any right or obligation due to us; a reform in the treatment of Indians and in the whole civil service of the country, and, finally, in securing a pure, untrammelled ballot, where every man entitled to cast a vote may do so just once at each election, without fear of molestation or proscription on account of his political faith, nativity, or color.

"Indian Agent."

"What is his salary, and how long has he held his office?"

"Two years, at fifteen hundred dollars a year."

"What did the honest fellow do with the rest of his salary?"

"Started his brother and two other honest men in the newspaper business to denounce corruption."

FORCED TO STRIP BY A WOMAN.—Recently a gentleman riding along the Washington road, in the neighborhood of Rae's creek crossing, discovered a white man and woman engaged in a very animated discussion. As he neared the pair, the woman complained that the man had stolen two dollars from her, and proclaimed that she intended to institute a thorough search. Carrying out her proclamation, she drew a pistol, and brought the man to a stand, compelling him to divest himself of his shoes, pants, coat and vest, leaving him protected by only a costume suited to the sultry weather of August. The search, however, was not successful, except in convincing the subject of it that some women are possessed of an extraordinary amount of curiosity concerning even small matters.—Augusta Constitutionalist.

B. C. YATES' GRAND RAFFLE AND SALE AT RINGGOLD, GA.—We call the special attention of our readers to the advertisement of B. C. Yates, which appears in another column. Mr. Yates is well known, and is a man of strict integrity in all his business transactions, and those who purchase tickets in his enterprise, can rely on his acting in perfect good faith with them. His object is to effect a sale of his property at a fair price, not speculation. The house, which is offered as the capital prize, is situated in the best business part of Ringgold, is 25 by 100 feet, built of brick, tin roof and granite front; and is one of the best and most conveniently arranged houses between Nashville and Atlanta. The dwelling consists of four rooms over the store, very convenient, and finished off in neat style. Well in the counting-room, with pump to supply the dwelling.

Notice to Voters.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, December 3, 1870.

Whereas, It was determined by the Mayor and Council of the city of Atlanta, at their meeting on the 2d inst., that two questions of great importance, to-wit: the establishment of Public Schools, and the erection of Water-Works should be submitted to the people of said city for their adoption or rejection, and the City Council having directed that the following card be published in all the city papers until, and including, Wednesday next:

To the Legal Voters of the City of Atlanta:

By the action of the City Council of Atlanta, you are requested to express on your ballots at the Municipal election on next Wednesday, your approval or disapproval of the establishment of Public Schools in said city. If a ballot having "Schools" on it, is voted it means the issuing of one hundred thousand dollars in city bonds for the building of school houses in the city of Atlanta, and a ballot having "No Schools" on it, means opposition to the issuance of said bonds. The candidates for Mayor and Council are requested to have their tickets printed to conform to the above arrangement.

And upon the subject of Water-Works, for the purpose of informing the citizens as to what the probable cost of erecting the same would be, it was resolved that the amounts of the different bids which had been submitted to the City Council for the erection thereof, should be published in the city papers, and that the voters at the municipal election, on Wednesday next, should be requested to endorse upon their tickets, the words "Water-Works," or "No Water-Works," and that the managers of said election be requested to keep a correct account of the same.

The bids for bringing the water from South River were as follows:

$481,500, $435,440, $345,837, and 328,000; and to bring the water from the Chattahoochee, would cost a great deal more.

To the end, therefore, that the citizens should be fully informed upon said subjects, you are requested to publish the foregoing as requested in said resolutions, and the citizens are most respectfully and earnestly requested to make said endorsements upon their tickets.

WILLIAM EZZARD, Mayor.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The Raffle and Sale at Calhoun, Ga.—H. K. Hicks & Co. The "Kregg Farm"—Wallace & Fowler. Mrs. Dr. Massey's Property—Wallace & Fowler. Wanted—Chas. S. Hardee. Appointments—Colonel W. F. Wright.

TURKEYS are very scarce in this market.

PREACHING at James' Chapel every night this week. Dr. Beastly will preach to-night.

DUNNERS.—These gentlemen tell us that bills for collection meet with a slow response.

RESURGENT.—The sign at DeGive's Opera House fell yesterday.

MAYOR'S COURT.—There were seven cases of drinking and disorderly conduct disposed of by his Honor, the Mayor, yesterday.

DELAY.—The down Passenger Train on the Georgia Railroad, was delayed by an accident to the engine yesterday some four or five hours.

MAYOR.—Dr. G. D. Case has been elected Mayor of Milledgeville. His opponent, Lewis Kenan, Esq., received a very handsome vote.

PERSONAL.—The genial and courteous gentleman, Mr Bob. McCombs who assists in presiding over the Kimball House, has returned to the city.

LADIES were on the streets yesterday afternoon as plentiful as leaves in the "vale of Valambrosa."

"To think that I would make my Molly veep."

Jack Moon, colored, was up before an officer yesterday, for wife-beating.

MONEY.—The local money market is stringent. All classes of society feel the effects of the pressure.

HEALTHY.—The city has been unusually healthy up to date. Few cases among our citizens, but that have readily yielded to medical skill.

BOYS.—Too many small boys are allowed to spend their evenings on the streets. Parents should remedy this.

IMPROVEMENT.—Peter's street, West of the Macon Railroad crossing, has been much improved by filling up and grading at the foot of the hill.

DAMAGED HEART.—Matilda Jones, colored, with lips like a bologna sausage, wishes to sue one Mike Lathiner for a breach of marriage.

UP.—George Willis, colored, and with peeled onion eyes, was up before a Justice yesterday for chicken-lifting.

GLORIFICALLELUGERUM.—Tweedy's side whiskers are to be seen no more in the Hall of Representatives.

DO NOT RELISH IT.—Some of the Radicals do not like to hear of Shearer's nomination. It is like pulling a gooseberry bush up and down their throats.

"GOOD-BYE SWEETHEART."—John Morris left the city last night with a young lady, who came up on the West Point train. He was engaged to be married next week in this city.

COLONEL G. W. ADAIR will sell, for the guardians, at the City Hall to-day, five valuable lots, on Castleberry's Hill, on Peter's street; and one lot on Decatur street, near LaGrange depot.

MR. F. KICKLIGHTER requests us to say that the transparencies used at the meeting on Saturday night were fixed up without his knowing anything about them.

FOR DR. ALEXANDER.—We are informed that eight colored men, Radicals, living in the —— Ward, came out for the above named gentleman yesterday. The instincts of man are the wisdom of God.

FIRE.—At half past two o'clock this morning, a fire broke out in the Planters' Saloon, on Peachtree street. The Saloon and the building adjoining it were destroyed. The extent of damage not ascertained.

ON THE RAMPAGE.—Numerous candidates for office

"Who paw the multitude with praise,
Of their ingenious care and fervent love
For preservation of the State."

CUTTING AFFAIR.—Two colored barbers had a difficulty at the shop near James' corner yesterday evening—Bob Yancey and Adam Overby—which resulted in a fight. Bob Yancy's throat was pretty badly cut. Adam made his escape.

MEETING TO-NIGHT.—Do not forget the meeting to-night at the City Hall. All who feel an interest in the subject of Public Schools will be present. Judge Brown, Judge Lochrane and Colonel Bleckley have been invited to speak.

SUPERIOR COURT.—The ejectment case in which Messrs. McNaught & Ormand were defendants, and —— Payne, Administrator of —— McRainey plaintiff, which has occupied a day or two of the Court, was decided yesterday in favor of defendants. The case will be taken up to the Supreme Court.

COURT OF ——.—Yesterday was the regular day for the Court of Ordinary. This reporter called up at Judge Pittman's office and found a couple of fascinating young ladies entertaining the handsome clerk, J. T. C. That was all the business going on.

"The world was all before them, where to choose Their place of rest, and Providence their guide."

A young couple from Columbia county came up on the Georgia train last night, when they left home they intended going to Texas to settle; but they have remained over here to-day, and have concluded to go up to Cartersville to-morrow.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.—We were at a small Republican meeting yesterday. One colored man made a speech. His language was not so beautiful and precise as that of Coleridge, nor were his figures fine devices stamped on shining metal. Yet, like Coleridge, he led us through new mazes of thought, and landed us on a shore of unknown conclusions.

BONNETS.—"Walking down" Whitehall what a change can be seen in the ladies hat of the day, to what it was a few years since. Now, the little "love of a bonnet" is made on a small scale and sold by the square inch. A while back there was nothing little about it, but a good, honest coal scuttle sort of a covering. A gentleman could not look a lady in the face, and there were no back windows in the scuttle to let in day light; so that, with one of the old style bonnets, a lady's face was set back, and looked like a landscape far in the distance. This reporter likes the modern hat.

GUILFORT BROTHERS.—Yesterday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, about fifteen or sixteen hundred persons assembled at and about Kile's corner, also in front of Messrs. Phillips & Crew's, to witness the performance of the Guilfort Brothers, athletes and tight rope walkers. A rope was suspended from the roof of the St. James Hotel to the top of Kile's, and one of the Brothers, in the dress of a clown, for about half an hour amused the large crowd by daring walking, trapez performances, going across on wooden shoes, etc. There are three of the brothers, tall, finely formed, all dress alike, and take the world easy. They are worth seeing.

THE THEATER.—Last night a large audience greeted Edwin Forrest, the American tragedian, that has so long held high place on the stage. He showed that he still retains magnificent power, but somewhat changed from the Edwin Forrest of fifteen years ago, when the writer last heard him. His points are still perfect, and some of his bursts were overpowering, but years have wrought their inevitable effect. Although his rendition of Virginius so impressed us. It may be that in his other characters his genius may show its wonted power.

It may be that our uncomfortable seat, so distant and inconvenient for seeing and hearing well, may have prevented our doing full justice to the actors.

The company is a very good one. Miss Lillie is a very sprightly young actress. The others, Harris, Holland, Mitchell, Arnold, Brown, etc., support Forrest well.

To-night is Richelieu—said to be his master-piece.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.—Quite a number of colored men and a very few white men, met at the City Hall last night.

Mr. Hotchkiss was made President, and —— Snider Secretary.

Turner, from Macon, spoke for two hours. His speech was mostly upon National and State politics.

Speeches, which this Reporter did not hear, were made by Dr. Weaver, colored, of New Jersey, and Jesse Jackson, white man.

After he reached the hall, Mr. J. Norcross spoke. He opened his speech by saying he was the first man who built a brick house in Atlanta; went over the amendments; reviewed National and State Democratic platforms, and wound up on the aristocracy, and being in with the Bourbon Democracy. Houghton, a [illegible] man, undertook to speak, and was ruled out. Wm. Finch, colored, and candidate for Alderman, spoke of Georgia and her resources; that he was a Republican, and could be nothing else, and could not see how an honest colored man could be anything else. He touched off Ariel's book; raked Dr. Bard, and ended by advising all to vote for Hammond.

A colored man proposed three cheers for Hammond; they were given, and the meeting adjourned.

Rev. Phebe A. Hanaford has been doing good work among the brothels of New Haven. She has been seen walking in the street with fallen women, arm in arm, and kind pleading with them to turn from their wicked ways.

Why should the Democratic party [illegible] Radical sheet.

[illegible] from the recent elections, it appears the country insists upon it.—Chicago [illegible]

MAGRUDER.—Among other anecdotes told of General Magruder, the following is not the worst: The General is notoriously proud of his genealogy, and when a gallant officer in the United States Army never lost an opportunity to regale his hearers with stories of the deeds and prowess of his Scotch ancestors. Meeting an old Scotchman on one occasion, many years ago, General Magruder entered into conversation with him, and, delighted to learn that he hailed from the same section of the "Land o' Cakes" from which the McGregors (his ancestors) came, asked him if he had known old —— McGregor. The countenance of the old man lighted up as he replied: "I ken him weel; he wa' henged at Tyburn"

In view of the situation in Maryland, it would be well to close the Republican meetings with an incantation after the manner of Macbeth. A huge iron pot labelled "official patronage" could be suspended over a fire, to be called Presidential wrath, around this postmasters and collectors should dance and sing—

"Eye of Dent, toe of Casey,
Heel of Sambo, fat and lazy,
Scalawag and carpet-bagger,
Rich men's purse, official swagger,
Mingle, mingle, etc."

And in this "off year" it would be well to throw in a few extra howls to increase the demonstration and vigor of the spectacle. [Donn Piatt.

The following is said to be Bill Arp's regular standing toast: "The everlasting Yankee—may he live always after the devil gits him." But, then, dad Burnett all, Bill is going to vote for a Radical for Congress. [Savannah News.

WOMAN'S BEST FRIEND.—To relieve the aching heart of woman and bring joy where sorrow reigned supreme, is a mission before which the smiles of kings dwindle into utter insignificance. To do this is the peculiar province of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator; which, from the numberless cures it has accomplished, is appropriately styled Woman's Best Friend. The distressing complaint known as "whites," and the various irregularities of the womb, to which woman is subject, disappear like magic before a single bottle of this wonderful compound. It is prepared by L. H. Bradfield, Druggist, Atlanta, Ga., and sold at $1.50 per bottle by respectable drugmen everywhere. Physicians prescribe it. Its action is prompt, sure and decisive.

FAST LIVING AND ITS CONSEQUENCES.—When "fast life" has undermined the strength, destroyed the appetite, impaired the digestion, and stolen the hue of health from the cheek—when the hand trembles, the spirits droop, and the whole physical and mental organization languishes, is it possible to repair the evil and restore the dilapidated system to full health and vigor? We answer that it is. Hundreds of cases have been cited, thousands might be cited, in which this regeneration has been accomplished by the regular and persistent use of Plantation Bitters. Abstinence from the indulgences which have wrought the mischief is, of course, one of the means of restoration. But it is not sufficient alone. The consequences remain after the cause has been abandoned. A wholesome and genial tonic is absolutely necessary to rouse the corporeal and mental energies from their state of collapse. This good work it is the mission of the Plantation Bitters to perform. But no other stimulant must be taken.

AN OLD FRIEND.—For many years the Press of the country has chronicled the beneficial effect of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Editors, authors, physicians, merchants, officers of the army and navy, chemists, counsellors, ministers of the gospel, in short, a great cloud of witnesses of every profession, trade and calling, have testified to its efficacy as a tonic and regulating medicine. The names and statements of these witnesses have been published in the public prints. Many of them are well-known to the whole public. Their testimony has never been challenged or impugned. This OLD FRIEND has been tried, and pronounced, on the authority of those whose lives and health it has preserved, a pure, harmless and eminently salutary preparation. Attempts have been made to rival it. They have failed. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment experienced by the afflicted when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body, recommend it to the whole community as a Reliable Friend.

CANCER! CANCER!!

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK, OF MADISON, GEORGIA.

Makes a speciality of treating all persons afflicted with

CANCERS, SCROFULA,
Indolent, Ulcers, etc., etc.

HE has successfully treated CANCERS for the last TWENTY YEARS, without the use of the knife or any internal agent. He begs to refer those afflicted to the following certificates of persons who have been cured by his treatment. They speak for themselves. The question will be asked who is Dr. Hitchcock? To all such I will answer that I was born and raised in Georgia. For all of which I feel very proud. I am permanently located in Madison, Ga.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK: It gives me pleasure to give my testimony in regard to the wonderful effects produced by your Vegetable Cancer Plaster. About five years ago I became afflicted with Cancer, just above my right breast. From that time to August 1st, 1869, I had as many as ten or twelve Physicians to examine and prescribe for it, but all proved of no avail. I called on you about the first of August, 1869, and put myself under your treatment. I am happy to say that your Plaster removed the Cancer, and I am now entirely well. I cheerfully give this certificate, not for the purpose of applauding you, though I feel under lasting obligations to you for the cure, I do it for the benefit of all such as may be afflicted with this terrible malady.

FRANCIS A. CALLOWAY.
Rutledge, Ga., June 1, 1870.
Tested by Dr. J. P. JACKSON.
Dr. J. J. MONTGOMERY.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK: I do hereby certify that I have had a Cancer on the angle of my jaw for fifteen years, and have applied to a number of physicians for treatment, but without success. The application of your celebrated Plaster removed the Cancer in eight days from the time of application. It has now been nearly two years since I was cured. I cheerfully give this for the benefit of the afflicted.

T. P. PEACOCK.
Madison, Ga., June 1, 1870.

I do certify that I have been troubled with a Cancer on my cheek, near my under eye-lid for two years past. I applied to Dr. W. L. HITCHCOCK, who applied his celebrated Cancer Plaster, and was agreeably surprised to see the Cancer come out whole, the eighth day from application; I am now well, and my face entirely healed up. I advise all persons afflicted with Cancer to give him a trial.

ROBERT SHIELDS.
Madison, August 2, 1869.

I have been suffering with a Cancer of the large kind, on the back of my neck, called rose cancer for the past three years. I applied to Dr. W. L. HITCHCOCK, of Madison, who put a plaster on the Cancer, and, in eight days, it come out entirely. I am now well, and have been since the Cancer came out, which was last fall.

M. W. COFER.
Rutledge, Ga., September, 1868.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK—Dear Sir: I am pleased to state that your Plaster has entirely cured the Cancer on my nose, which has give me so much trouble. I shall ever feel grateful to you for the success of your remedy.

MRS. LORINA STRATTON.
Madison, Ga., May, 1870.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK: I am pleased to certify that I have had a large Cancer on my right arm for twenty years, and have seen and advised with numbers of Physicians, who advised me to let it alone, as they considered the Cancer too far advanced to be subdued by remedies. I heard of you and made application for treatment, as a last resort, and to my great satisfaction your Plaster has taken out the Cancer, in eight days, by the roots, and the sore is now rapidly healing, and I entertain strong hopes of a speedy recovery.

J. F. BURNS.
Edgefield Court House, S. C.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK—Dear Sir: I do hereby certify that I have been afflicted sorely with Cancer for fifteen years, and have tried many Physicians, and spent a great deal of money—all to no purpose, until I called on you, in Madison, last winter. The application of your Plaster has acted like a charm. I have the Cancer now in my possession, and the sores are all healed up, except one small place, which is nearly healed. I beg to refer all persons afflicted to call on Dr. Hitchcock, at Madison, Ga.

T. B. REESE.
Edgefield Court House, or Hamburg, South Carolina, May, 1870.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK—Dear Sir: I am happy to certify that your remedies have cured the Cancer on my face and nose, that had given me so much pain for twelve years. It appears as sound as if I never had a Cancer.

MRS. E. B. STANTON.
Newton County, Ga., April 29, 1870—Post-office at Social Circle, Ga.

It affords me pleasure to state that I have witnessed a number of remarkable cures of Cancer, by the application of Dr. W. L. Hitchcock's Cancer Plaster.

J. F. PATTERSON,
September, 1870. Madison, Ga.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK'S
Liver Medicine.

I would also state that, in addition to my curing Cancers, I am in regular practice of medicine, and make a speciality of treating chronic diseases, especially those peculiar to females, to which, from a long experience and extensive practice, I guarantee perfect satisfaction. I also keep a full assortment of Family Medicines on hand of my own manufacture, but I call your special attention to my celebrated COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT OF STILLINGIA AND INDIAN HEMP, OR ALTERATIVE AND LIVER TONIC. It invariably relieves the following disorders: Chronic Torpidity of the Liver, Spleen, Kidneys, and Bladder. It cures Dyspepsia and Scrofula, Eruptions and Blotches of the Skin. It cures mercurial and old venerial diseases. Some will ask, how can this one medicine cure all of the diseases. The answer is this: It is so compounded as to answer all of the requirements of those systems, being compounded of the best, purest, and most reliable Liver medicine, tonic, alteratives, diuretic and disinfectants that belong to the vegetable kingdom. This medicine is the result of twenty years experience. I used it in my private practice for the last 20 years, and within the last six months I have sold over $1,000 worth of it, and I have to hear of the first complaint. I claim and assert it without the fear of successful contradiction from any that have tried it, to be superior to any of the preparations of the day, for the diseases that I recommend it for.

I have never advertised this medicine before. I have always been opposed to advertising nostrums and quack medicines, but having been requested to do so, for years, by my friends, I have concluded to do it for the benefit of the good of all that may avail themselves of the benefit of it. I could give thousands of testimonials to the happy effects of this medicine, but be satisfied that it will recommend and sustain itself, and all I ask is to give it a fair and impartial trial. Take it by the direction on the bottle, and if you do not find it all, or more than I claim for it, then I will agree to stop the sale.

I put up my medicine in ONE and TWO DOALLAR bottles, to suit persons and purses.

One word more to those that are suffering with Cancers. Don't let the Doctors dishearten you. For the most of them will, because they can't cure you themselves, will tell you that it can't be cured.

I have been curing Cancers for twety years, and have never failed but in one case, and that case was beyond medical aid. If you have a CANCER call and see me, and I will tell you in a half hour if I can cure you; will charge nothing for examination, and if I cure you, will be reasonable in my charges.

CERTIFICATES.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK—Dear Sir: This is to certify that my wife and daughter, Mrs. W. H. Jones, of Union Point, Ga., and our cook woman, have used your Alterative Liver Medicine, and do all cheerfully say it has had a fine effect; has entirely relieved them of their liver affection. Dr. Cheney, of Newborn, said my little grandchild, was laboring under an affection of the liver, and was badly affected with Asthma. I learn he has been entirely relieved. Our cook woman, about the turn of life, and has been suffering with diseased liver, and general debility of the whole system, together with inflammatory rheumatism, all says she is entirely cured by the use of your Medicine. I cheerfully recommend it to the public, believing it to be a good medicine.

Yours truly,
REV. W. A. FLORENCE,
Pastor of the M. E. Church, South, Madison, Ga.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK—Dear Sir: I have used your Alterative and Liver Medicine, and have derived great benefit from it. Other members of my family have used it with like benefit, and I can confidently recommend it as a good remedy for the diseases you propose to relieve.

Yours,
C. M. IRWIN,
Pastor Baptist Church.
Madison, Ga., September 5, 1870.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK—Dear Sir: I have had the misfortune to be afflicted with a liver and dyspeptic affection for the last twenty years. I have scarcely been able to eat, or digest my food without pain, and have often tried various remedies, but found no relief until I took a course of you Alterative Medicine. I am now well and hearty. I cheerfully recommend all persons who may be afflicted with indigestion, to give these Medicines a trial, and I am sure they will be relieved.

PHILIP SHOUSE.

PETITION.

GEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY—TO THE HONORABLE SUPERIOR COURT OF SAID COUNTY.

THE Petition of V. R. Tommey, Charles F. Benson, R. N. Walton, F. B. Trotti, J. W. McCrary, James Loveless, E. F. McMannaman, M. T. Castleberry, [illegible] Caldwell, and W. L. Fox, all of said county, respectfully showeth, that they have associated themselves together and desire to be incorporated for the term of twenty years, under the name and style of the "Atlanta Furniture Manufacturing Company," for the purpose of manufacturing and repairing in said county and State, Furniture of every description. Said company will employ a capital stock of one hundred thousand dollars, divided into twenty thousand shares of five dollars each, on which there has been actually paid in, the sum of fifteen per centum, making fifteen thousand dollars, the balance to be paid in at such times as may be determined on by said company. Said company to be governed by such officers and under by-laws, as a majority of the stock represented may, from time to time, adopt.

L. J. GLENN & SON,
Petitioners' Attorneys.

Clerk's Office of the Superior Court of Fulton county, Georgia, November 28, 1870.—I certify that the Petition is a true copy of the original now of record in my office. W. R. VENABLE, Clerk.

Fahnestock's Vermifuge.

WHY [illegible] under the age of five years [illegible] large proportion of children die under that age, has long been a subject of remark, and without a satisfactory cause ascertained, it is certain.

Also, it is known that worms exist in the human system from its earliest infancy; therefore parents, especially mothers, who are more constantly with their children, cannot be too observing of the first symptoms of worms; for so surely as they exist, can they be safely and as certainly removed from the most Delicate Infant, by the timely use of

B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge.

It is perfectly harmless, contains no Mercury, being a purely Vegetable Composition, and may be administered with the utmost safety to children of all ages.

Worm Confections, made more for the purpose of pleasing the palate than of overcoming the disease, have been manufactured all over the country, but their short lease of life is nearly exhausted, and B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge continues to grow in favor daily.

CAUTION.

Should occasion require you to purchase B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge, be particularly careful to see that the initials are B. A. This is the article that has been so

FAVORABLY KNOWN SINCE 1829,

And purchasers must insist on having it, if they do not wish to have an imitation forced upon them.

Editor Constitution: In your daily of the instant you make some remarks upon the payment of a $500 fee, to Robert H. Brown, "for drawing the title from John H. James to the State, of the house lately bought by the Legislature as an Executive mansion." A knowledge of the facts will, I think, relieve Judge Brown of the imputation of having charged, and the Governor of having paid, an unconscionable or exhorbitant fee, which, if I understand you, you charge them with in your article.

Mr. James presented the chain of title that he had. The resolution under which the mansion was purchased, required that this title be perfect, before the purchase was made, and to ascertain whether it was perfect, or not, it had to be submitted to a competent attorney, or other person able to decide. The matter was, therefore, referred to Judge Robert H. Brown, who made a thorough inspection of the records, and the title was found to be so seriously defective, that no prudent man would have purchased the property as the title stood; nor did Judge Brown consent to the payment of the bonds until the defect was removed. The "drawing of the title from John H. James to the State," you intimate, if I understand you, and others I find understand you as I do, was all Judge Brown did in the transaction, whereas it was the least part of the services he rendered.

Besides this, the State had a large claim against the city of Atlanta for the furnishing of an Executive Mansion, which Judge Brown was required to adjust with the Council and transfer to Mr. James, according to the terms of the resolution under which the mansion was purchased. This involved several interviews with various members of the Council, and with a committee of Councilmen to whom this matter was referred, who met at Judge Brown's office, where the claim of the State was adjusted, the transfer executed, and the basis of the report of the committee settled.

In view of the amount of labor done and skill required, and the value of the property transpired. I did not and do not consider the fee charged an unusual one, nor do I believe that any respectable member of the bar would charge or expect less for similar services.

I feel called upon to make this statement, because my name is mentioned in close connection with the matter and under the same heading, and I do not wish the public erroneously to think that Judge Brown or myself have made exhorbitant charges. No other attorney in the city would have charged less than $25 for the services I rendered and the time I was occupied, in taking an inventory of ten thousand dollars' worth of movable property at one time and superintending the reception of it at another.

I leave it for others to discuss, whether the Governor of a State may not legally employ other counsel besides the Attorney General, which is often done, I believe, by every Government which has Attorneys General or King's or Queen's counsel. At the time these services were rendered, however, our Attorney General was in the Northwest and engaged in corresponding with THE CONSTITUTION.

For your personal information I would state that I have been admitted to the bar, and have been in practice several years.

Very respectfully,
C. K. MADDOX.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

Bullock Fails to Sell His New Bonds—Wall Street Will Not Take Them—The Legislature to be Called Together Again in January—Angier to be Impeached.

NEW YORK, November 26, 1870.

EDITORS CHRONICLE AND SENTINEL: I thank you for the desired information, and also for the kind allusions to our House, and for the extracts from THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION. There would be no difficulty in placing State Bonds or bonds of well located railroad enterprises, endorsed by the State, in moderate amounts, at a reasonable figure, upon one condition, and that is, that the people of the State shall be proportionately identified in interest. Public confidence in Georgia thrift and energy is very firm; and I may add, from personal knowledge acquired in early life (for I commenced life in Georgia in your city, and later at Macon) is well grounded.

Again: the wonderful recuperation of Georgia since the close of the war, has opened the eyes of the public to her wonderful resources—as yet scarcely touched, and to the degree of prosperity which she will attain in future. These views receive careful consideration by those who desire to invest, and of course are noted by bankers and bond-brokers. Your people may rest assured that Wall street is as well posted as to the liabilities and resources of your State as any of your citizens, and scan closely both the character of State Legislature and the requirements of law. As an instance of public confidence in your State credits, I could give the names of three or four New England savings banks, who hold as investments no inconsiderable amounts [illegible] Georgia "old sixes." At the same t[illegible] should be uncandid did I not state [illegible] late Legislature has awakened d[illegible] your Your Governor is now h[illegible] trust. here day before yeste[illegible], or at least was difficulty in effectin[illegible] and finds some seven per cent[illegible] negotiation of his new not touch [illegible] Bankers and capitalists will of the [illegible] these bonds, because the demands a[illegible] law have not been complied with. He [illegible] that all that is said about these bonds has been said by the State Treasurer, who is striving, through personal animosity as well as for political purposes, to cripple him by damaging the credit of the State; but it appears to me that the extract from your Code which you sent me is so very plain, that he cannot disregard it, and in all events it must be complied with before he can do more than effect a moderate loan upon them as collaterals, if he can do this much as I doubt. Some of our first bankers, who desire to go into these bonds, will send a responsible party out to Atlanta to investigate more closely, the status of affairs before they venture.

The suspicion is that this is another North Carolina affair, promising similar results. The Governor says that it will be necessary to call the legislature together in January to perfect some unfinished matters, as the new Legislature cannot meet before next Fall. Is this so? He says also that at that time he will have some suggested alterations in the authority granted by the act passed, and shall insist that your Legislature free him from the Treasurer's malicious influence, which is so damaging to the State. Be this as it may, there are too many Southern bonds on the market. Tennessee's and Alabama's are as plentiful as autumn leaves; and it looks as if Georgia's promise like abundance. I would that you were without "these bonds." C.

THIS Company has purchased the right to manufacture and sell "Doty's Gas Generator," in the States of Georgia, Alabama, Florida and South Carolina. The gas is generated by a simple chemical process, without fuel or heat. Machines are made suitable for dwellings, printing offices, hotels, churches, halls and factories, in cities or in the country.

The gas manufactured from the "Generator" for beauty, safety and economy is unexcelled—the cost being about one-fifth of the ordinary coal gas. The machine is in successful operation and may be examined by the public at the office of the Georgia State Agricultural Society in Atlanta, where the undersigned will be glad to receive orders or give any information that may be desired.

Great Remedies.

DR. JOHN BULL,

Manufacturer and Vender of the Celebrated

Smith's Tonic Syrup,

FOR THE CURE OF

Ague and Fever,

—OR—

Chills and Fever.

THE Proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the safe, certain, speedy and permanent cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southwestern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion, that in no case whatever will it fail to cure, if the directions are strictly carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long standing cases. Usually, this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order; should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

Bull's Worm Destroyer.

To my United States and World-wide Readers.

I have received many testimonials from professional and medical men, as my Almanacs and various publications have shown, all of which are genuine. The following letter, from a highly educated and popular physician in Georgia, is certainly one of the most sensible communications I have ever received. Dr. Clement knows exactly what he speaks of, and his testimony deserves to be written in letters of gold. Hear what the Doctor says of Bull's Worm Destroyer:

VALLANOW, Walker County, Ga., June 29, 1869.

DR. JOHN BULL:

DEAR SIR—I have recently given your "Worm Destroyer" several trials, and find it wonderfully efficacious. It has not failed in a single instance to have the wished for effect. I am doing a pretty large country practice, and have daily use for some article of the kind. I am free to confess that I know of no remedy recommended by the ablest authors that is so certain and speedy in its effects. On the contrary, they are uncertain in the extreme. My object in writing you is to find out upon what terms I can get the medicine direct from you. If I can get it upon easy terms, I shall use a great deal of it. I am aware that the use of such articles is contrary to the teachings and practice of a great majority of the regular line M. D.'s, but I see no just cause or good sense in discarding a remedy which we know to be efficient, simply because we may be ignorant of its combination. For my part, I shall make it a rule to use all and any means to alleviate suffering humanity which I may be able to command—not hesitating because some one more ingenious than myself may have learned its effects first, and secured the sole right to secure that knowledge. However, I am by no means an advocate or supporter of the thousands of worthless nostrums that flood the country, that purport to cure all manner of disease to which human flesh is heir. Please reply soon, and inform me of your best terms. I am, sir, most respectfully,

JULIUS P. CLEMENT, M. D.

BULL'S

SARSAPARILLA.

A GOOD REASON FOR THE CAPTAIN'S FAITH.

READ THE CAPTAIN'S LETTER AND THE LETTER FROM HIS MOTHER.

BENTON BARRACKS, MO., April 30, 1866.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Knowing the efficiency of your Sarsaparilla, and the healing and beneficial qualities it possesses, I send you the following statement of my case.

I was wounded two years ago—was taken prisoner and confined for sixteen months. Being moved so often, my wounds have not healed yet. I have not set up a moment since I was wounded. I am shot through the hips. My general health is impaired, and I need something to assist nature. I have more faith in your Sarsaparilla than in anything else. I wish that that is genuine. Please express me half a dozen bottles, and oblige,

CAPT. C. P. JOHNSON,
St. Louis, Mo.

P. S.—The following was written April 30, 1866, by Mrs. Jennie Johnson, mother of Captain Johnson:

DR. BULL—Dear Sir: My husband, Dr. C. S. Johnson, was a skillful surgeon and physician in Central New York, where he died, leaving the above C. P. Johnson to my care. At thirteen years of age he had a chronic diarrhoea and scrofula, for which I gave him your Sarsaparilla. IT CURED HIM. I have for ten years recommended it to many in New York, Ohio and Iowa, for scrofula, fever sores and general debility. Perfect success has attended it. The cures effected in some cases of scrofula and fever sores were almost miraculous. I am very anxious for my son to again have recourse to your Sarsaparilla. He is fearful of getting a spurious article, hence his writing to you for it. His wounds were terrible but I believe he will recover.

Respectfully,
JENNIE JOHNSON.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Last February I was in Louisville purchasing drugs, and I got some of your Sarsaparilla and Cedron Bitters.

My son-in-law, who was with me in the store, has been down with rheumatism for some time, commenced on the Bitters, and soon found his general health improved.

Dr. Gist, who has been in bad health, tried them, and he also improved.

Dr. Coffee, who has been in bad health for several years—stomach and liver affected—he improved very much by the use of your Bitters. Indeed, the Cedron Bitters has given your good popularity in this settlement. I think I could sell a great quantity of your medicines this fall, especially of your Cedron Bitters and Sarsaparilla. ## THE WORLD'S WONDER.

Dr. Abbett's Anti-Dyspeptic

—OR—

LIVER MEDICINE.

A SAFE and certain cure for all kinds of Liver Complaints, and all diseases and indispositions that originate from a diseased state or inactivity of the Liver, such as

Chronic and Acute Inflammations of the Liver,
Dyspepsia, Sick Headache,
Sourness of the Stomach,
Loss of Appetite,
Lowliness of Spirits, Colic,
Costiveness, Fever, Ague,
Billous Fever, Dropsy and Jaundice.

These Medicines are purely Vegetable, and perfectly harmless; but their efficacy is too permanently established in all the Southern and Western States to require any further recommendations. The wise will not fail to give them a fair trial—this is all that is asked.

LAGRANGE, GA., December 3, 1869.

MESSRS. CRAWFORD & WALKER, West Point, Ga.—Gentlemen: Having witnessed almost daily, for the last fifteen years, the great efficacy of the preparation you are now putting up, known as "Abbett's Medicine," it affords me pleasure to state that I know of no combination or preparation equal to the treatment of Liver Diseases of whatever character, and cordially recommend it to all who are suffering from derangement of the Liver, and especially the Dyspeptic.

I am, very respectfully,
T. S. BRADFIELD, Druggist.

WEST POINT, GA., October 15, 1869.

MESSRS. CRAWFORD & WALKER—Gentlemen: I can honestly and confidently recommend L. B. Abbett's Liver or Dyspeptic Medicine, as prepared by you, to the favorable notice of the suffering public. Having used this Medicine myself in my family for twenty years, I can highly recommend it for removing pain or flatulency from the stomach, caused by indigestion. It also has a happy effect in removing constipation of the bowels. I believe it to be the best universal remedy the world has yet discovered for the above named diseases. With my best wishes to you in introducing this valuable Medicine to the public, I remain

ROSADALIS.

R O S A D A L I S

The Great American Health Restorer, purifies the blood and cures Scofula, Syphilis, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Diseases of Women, and all Chronic Affections of the Blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and many thousands of our best citizens.

Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis; send for our Rosadalis Guide to Health Book, or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution, it will give you much valuable information.

Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore, says:

I take pleasure in recommending your Rosadalis as a powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in a case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of Scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of alterative ingredients.

Dr. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of Scrofula and secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results—as a cleaner of the Blood I know no better remedy.

Samuel G. McFadden, Murfreesboro, Tenn., says:

I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis, and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; send me four bottles, as I wish it for my brother, who has scrofulous sore eyes.

Benjamin Bechtel, of Lima, Ohio, writes I have suffered for twenty years with an inveterate eruption over my whole body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.

Rosadalis is sold by all Druggists.

UNIVERSAL

Life Insurance Company,

—NEW YORK—

The Original Joint-Stock Life Insurance Company of the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

The Distinctive Feature

Of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the Mutual, is a low rate of premiums for a stated sum insured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium with a promised dividend, which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

Illustration.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $300 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the UNIVERSAL, the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474—a difference immediately secured, in favor of the UNIVERSAL, $3,277.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent. greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty-three and one-third per cent. payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent. payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan the full value in insurance of the premium paid, is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

The Premiums

Charged by the Universal are as low as the actual experience of insured life in this country will justify, and on ordinary Life and Ten-Year Non-forfeiting policies are nearly one-third lower than those charged by a majority of Mutual Companies.

Special attention is asked to our "Return Premium Plan," by which the amount of the policy is secured simply by the temporary deposit of the annual premiums, which are returned in full, together with the amount assured, to the holder of the policy when it shall become a claim upon the Company. Also to the

"REDUCTION PREMIUM PLAN,"

By which a reduction of one-third is made in the premium after the first annual payment, being, in fact, equivalent to a dividend of at 1-3 per cent. A clause is inserted in the policies issued by the "Universal," in which these results are distinctly specified and guaranteed.
